Fold 1 piece of organza in half so you have a piece 5" x 5". Use your finger to press the fold. Place the fold onto the open end of the stitching. Tape in place. Stitch the next color.

Stitch the flower design. Don't stitch the last color.

Take the first piece that was stitched out and place it on top of the piece in the hoop, right sides together.

Match the stitching lines and tape into place. Stitch the last color.

Cut away excess organza from around the design. Rinse out the stabilizer and allow to dry. Make a tiny hole on the top layer or organza on either end of the gusset and thread the ribbon through.
